

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Kevin Thomas

Senate to Hold Joint Public Hearing on Protecting Consumer Data and Privacy on Online Platforms

KEVIN THOMAS November 21, 2019

| ISSUE: CONSUMER PROTECTION COMMITTEE, INTERNET AND TECHNOLOGY, PROTECTING PRIVACY DATA ONLINE

| COMMITTEE: CONSUMER PROTECTION

(Garden City, NY) -- Senator Kevin Thomas (D-Levittown), Chair of the Consumer Protection Committee, will lead a joint public hearing with the Committee on Internet & Technology in Manhattan on Friday, November 22 to conduct discussion on online privacy and the role of the New York State Legislature in its oversight.

The hearing will focus on gathering input from experts and stakeholders, with the purpose of investigating the concerns and challenges involved in safeguarding New Yorkers' personal information online. Among those set to testify are two prominent figures in the Cambridge

Analytica data scandal, Brittany Kaiser and David Carroll, who will talk to lawmakers about their role in exposing the company's illicit harvesting of personal data from Facebook and other sources.

The hearing will take place in Manhattan on Friday, November 22 at 11:00 AM in the Senate Hearing Room, 250 Broadway, 19th Floor, New York, NY 10007. Live stream available here.
